Corrine Anderson presents
World Almanac to Mrs. Hine.

The Winston-Salem Journal and Sentinel has again this year given our CHS library a copy of the 1973 world Almanac. Corrine Anderson, Central's teen-page correspondent, made the presentation to Mrs. Dorothy Hine, librarian, on February 9, 1973, in the school library. The Journal and Sentinel has been giving local public high schools the almanac for several years now, and CHS students in the past have enjoyed using this useful book of facts and information.

NEW TEACHING AID
Portable conference telephone

*Items entered in the Dixie Clasic Fair
by Central Students*

Central has a new teaching aide, the Portable Conference Telephone. This machine allows the user to call a party at a distance, and several people can listen to the conversation at one time. Questions can be asked and answered. Shown above, Mr. Scott and some bus drivers have a conversation with Mr. Morris Hastings, director of school bus transportation. The boys are, front to back, Doug Parnell, Charles Shivers, Donald Ray Smith, Jerold Reese, Thomas Atwater, and Mr. John Scott.
